Company SOP

All employees must follow standard operating procedures.

Data security is mandatory across all departments.

Confidential documents must not be shared externally.